

Terms & Conditions

1. Participants or their guests are not a government entity or affiliated with a government entity.
2. Attendance of Participants or their guests is not in exchange for new or continued business with Gigamon or any improper benefit.
3. If Participant is attending GigaRACE on behalf of his or her employer, then Participant hereby represents that he or she has fully disclosed the nature of this event to the appropriate people with his or her employer, and has ensured his or her participation in GigaRACE on these terms does not violate any policy of his or her employer or any law, and, to the extent required by his or her employer's policies, has ensured that his or her employer has approved of Participant's participation in GigaRACE.
4. All Participants are required to acknowledge and agree to the Rules and Regulations, and General Liability and Release Waiver Agreement as stated on www.gigamonapac.com/gigarace2023/ upon registration.
5. To be eligible for this competition, contestants must be current employees from Gigamon's authorised distributors and partners from the following countries: Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia, Philippines, Thailand, Vietnam, and India.
6. To participate in this Challenge, contestants must have successfully registered and received a confirmation email of successful registration.
7. For all stages: all contestants must log into the GigaRACE portal during the stipulated quiz period to answer the questions.
8. Gigamon reserves the right to amend the terms and conditions, without prior notice.